Community Foundation of Grant County Accepts Nominations for the 4th Annual Spirit of Philanthropy Awards

The Community Foundation is currently accepting nominations for the Annual Spirit of Philanthropy Awards. This is the fourth year that the Foundation has given the Spirit of Philanthropy Awards to recognize generous contributions in the Grant County community.

Applications to nominate someone for the Spirit of Philanthropy Award are available at www.comfdn.org or by stopping by the Community Foundation office at 505 West Third Street, Marion, Indiana.

There are three different categories in which awards will be given: youth, individual and corporate. Nominees must currently live in Grant County and have made a significant contribution through time, talent and/or treasure. The deadline for nominations is Friday, April 9th by noon.

Previous recipients of the Spirit of Philanthropy Award include:

Youth: Shelby Haisley, Bradley Belcher, and Mississinewa DECA Club

Individual: Marla Keppler, Dave Rees, and Hilary Harris

Corporate: General Motors, Fairmount Round Robins and Marion General Hospital

All nominees and nominators will be invited to the Community Foundation's Annual Meeting on Tuesday, May 4 at 6:00 at Roseburg Event Center where all award recipients will be announced.
